To the Abolitionists of the United States:

work in that election 1 On None of THEM. None of THEM GO FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAYERY. Only one of them is so much as anti-slavery; and even that one is anti-slavery at but a single point. The Republican arty opposes the introduction of slavery into the Terriories, that endores its constitutionality in all the slave States.* It lets alone the whole slave trade, not only that between the States, but the constwise trade also, which is carried on under the sanction and regulations of Congress. It lets alone slavery in the District of Columbia. It even lets alone the Fugitive Slave Bill, and well it may, for it fully admits that all the States, and does not deny that all the Territories, also, are the constitutional having ground for slaves. The Republican party would have Kans us a tree State. Nevertheless, it would allow the slaveholder weafe pursuit over all its prairies and through all its tewns after his bleeding and brokenhearted fugitive.

We need not have said all this to prove that we have no right to rely on the Republican party to do our work in the sensing of the interesting the footing of the proper of the publican party to do our work in the sensing of the interesting the footing of the publican in the first in the sensing of the party to the party to the party in the sensing of the party to the party to the party to the party in the sensing of the party to the publican party to do our work in the sensing of the party to the pa we need not have san an tors to prove some one right to rely on the Republican party to do our work in the coming election. Enough to this end is the fact that the shorery which we are trying to abolish this party spreads its wing over, and donies our right to abolish, nough to this end is it hat whilst we hold shavery to be a I from a tour in Europe.

Let it not be supposed that we undervate the exame-ter of the membris of the Republican party. Not a few of them are our personal friends—esteemed and beloved by us. A considerable portion of them, we trust, are Abulitionists at heart, and subscribe to our principles.— But the more excellent the character of the members of this party, the more injurious the false policy which they have suffered to be etamped upon the party. That such men should make such concessions to slavery, is larm at-able indeed. Alsa, for Freeders, when even her own able indeed. THE New York Tmics says: "A story is now in circulation among porsons likely to be "posted," that a venerable and well-known citizen, who formerly held a high municipal office, and is now conspicuously connected with a leading financial institution, hasabeen victimized out of a large sum of money—stated to be even as high as $100,000—by a conspirity, in which, of course, a young and handsome woman acted an important part. The manager of the affair, formerly proprietor of a prorting house up town, fied from the city when it we don't realist, lightly for their houses to give, they will cease to love. Some all them "small potato friends."

it in you as my deliberate conviction, and on my responsibility as a citizen, that it wilkbe the end of human slavery in this land."

In such an event, what room would there be for the Republicar party, with its distinct admission that "the Saveholding interest, in the States where it exists, is en titled, under the Constitution, like all other local inter idled, under the Constitution, like all other local interests, to immunity from the interferences of the General Government "? It such an event, what room would there be for the Regulation perty, a party "disclaining any intentions to interfere with slavery in the States where it exists "?! In such an event, what room would there be for the Regulation party, whose Convention referred to was presided over by a slaveholder, representing a strebuilding constituency, and bringing with him, as he himself stated, a "Southern platform," designed as he himself stated, to restore the Missouri Compromise as "the security of the slave inslitution"; f a party a "the security of the slave institution"; ‡ a party that, filled to use his weapons.

slave in his chains ! § We must not however, concern ourselves inordinately with the question, whether there will be few or many to come to us. We should find sufficient encouragement to go forward in the assurance that God is with as an chaining, as we do, the immediate and unconditional liberation of every playe, and in denying, as we do, the possibility of law for slavery, we cannot doubt that we have the Divine approbation and the Evine blessing. blessing, Meet with us, then brethren, at Syracuse, on Wednesday the 28th day of next May, for the purpose of moninaling men, for President and Vice-President of the United the 28th day of next May, for the purpose of nominating men, for President and Vice-President of the United States, who have the ability, the integrity, and the courage to assert their principles, and who will wield their official powers for the deliverance of every American shycholder, and for the salvation of the whole country. We confess too, that we should expect to see still greater mumbers of you aut for our apprehension that most of you are still in the habit of tooking to other sthan Abilitionists, and waiting for other than Abilitionists, to do your work. In 1848 you must wait to see what the Buffield party would do. It did nothing but die,—In 1852 you must wait too see what the Pitteburg platform party would do. That too did nothing but die,—And now, will you walt to see what the second Pitteburg platform purty will do? That is just as sure to die as were the others. A lix very birth it refuses to inscribe on its bunner the metro of its predecessors, "No more Slave State," and relies, in company with slaveholders on the one issue of restoring the infamous Missouri Compromise, in which Fereden was betruyed, the Slave Fower enthrousd, and its career of successful aggression inangurated.

Every anti-stavery party that does not rise to the lev Every anni-staven, party that does not use to the level of an Abolition party is without root and must wither away. To expect success for this new Pittsburg party—for this policy of stepping the progress of slavery at one point, whilst indorsing and guaranteein the great mass of it—is scarcely less folly than to expect to save the city y an attempt to stay the flames at one point, whilst the incendiaries are permitted to fan the flames at every other.

THE REAL FACTS ABOUT JONES .- LONG after the lying telegraph has prejudiced the truth, in the case of the pretended Sheriff Jones, the facts come along tardily by mail, to justify the Free Soilers, and to fasten the assassination where all the crimes in Kausas belong-upon the Propagandists of Slavery. is generally believed in Lawrence that Jones was shot by a Missourian, a settler near Lecompton, with whom he had had a personal difficulty respecting a claim. The circumstances to justify this belief are that this man nos toriously dogged to shoot him for some time past—that about dusk of the evening of the 23d a stranger rode into town and tied his home behind a store-and that he was seen immediates ly after the firing of the shots to mount and ride away.—Alb. Eve. Journal.

Good News .- The Berlin Courant of the 13th inet, says:
